

John Dahl
Statement of Qualifications/ Treasurer

John Dahl's career at UCLA spans 40+ years having performed numerous financial and budgetary functions/roles for a variety of campus organizations: External Affairs (fund raising, alumni, communications, and legislative advocacy), UCLA Samueli School of Engineering, UCLA Corporate Financial Services (campus' accounting and financial area) and Academic Planning and Budget (campus' budget and planning office). His educational background in accounting, finance, and computer systems served him well in his many roles, assignments, and projects comprising organizational and campus-wide analytical reporting, processes and systems, and overall support to the university in its mission. He is active in the UCLA Retirees Association, spanning 15+ years, has held positions of President and Treasurer in the Association, and currently chairs two committees. Lastly, he is currently Treasurer of CUCRA having served in the position since 2012. He regards UCLA and UC as his family.